December 11, 2010

The plan for the weekend was camping at Outdoor World in Williamsburg and luncheon at the Peking Restaurant. Those camping were Blackburn, Colbow, Potts, Stone, and Wilkins. For our luncheon we also had Maguder, Ruffin and Johnson/McKinny join us. We also welcomed guests, Duie and Marliese Brantley.

The weekend started off cool but clear. Three of us arrived at the campground around noon and we had the place to ourselves. Once we were situated Ron and I went out for lunch and shopping. When we got back everyone was there and it was nearly time for the chili dinner our hosts, Ed and Yvonne Pott's prepared. Tania Stone brought over some fruitcake and pumpkin bread she made. We met in the lounge. We ate dinner and chatted for a while and went back to our own homes.

Saturday morning, Ed and Yvonne cooked scrambled eggs, plain and with cheese, sausage links and toast. Walt and Thelma joined us for breakfast. We talked a little more before returning to our coaches.

So much for the cool and clear, it soon turned to rain and more rain. Lunch was 1 p.m. at the Peking Restaurant, a real smorgasbord of Chinese food. Following lunch we were invited to Thelma's house for eggnog and cookies. Though some had been there before, the rest of us weren't quite sure how to get there. Even though we took a little detour we all managed to find Thelma's house. We had a nice visit and a good time chatting with each other and then we ventured back to the campground.

Ed treated us to homemade cinnamon-raisin bread for breakfast on Sunday morning. Thank you to the Potts for hosting this month, we all had a great time!

HO! HO! HO! MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ALL!
